ABOUT ME

My name is Adrián Sabino Pérez, I hold a Higher Technician degree in Multiplatform Application Development, I am 20 years old, and I currently reside in Algeciras (Cádiz), Spain. I am a responsible, proactive, and adaptable person with a strong willingness to learn and grow in any work environment. I also possess excellent skills for working both independently and as part of a team.

I have knowledge in technology (software and hardware) and programming, as well as language proficiency (intermediate English, basic French, and native Spanish). Additionally, I hold a category B driving license and own a vehicle, which allows me to travel easily. I am fully available to relocate within Spain if required. Furthermore, I am eager to work abroad and am willing to move to any country where the job opportunity arises.

My goal is to contribute to the company's success while continuing to grow personally and professionally. With a committed attitude and openness to learning, I aim to integrate into a team where I can add value and develop new skills.
